

Stormzy, FKA twigs, Michael Kiwanuka, Mac DeMarco, Bikini Kill and many more appearing at Flow Festival

Also among recently confirmed acts appearing at Helsinki's Suvilahti this August are Chromatics, Koffee, Mabel, Gettomasa and Life Aid 2020, an ultra-assembly of the Finnish cult bands Henrik! and Teksti-TV 666.

Flow Festival's newest bookings are award-winning, leading British rap and grime artist Stormzy, whose album currently holds the number one spot on the British album chart, R&B star FKA twigs whose productions and performances belie her complete mastery of the pop aesthetic, Michael Kiwanuka whose latest album has been a frequent sight on lists of the last year's best releases as well as Mac DeMarco, who has grown into a bona fide alternative rock superstar. Flow will also host a show by punk phenomenon Bikini Kill, whose political lyrics and thought-provoking performances helped create the Riot Grrrl movement in the early 1990s. They reunited in 2019.

Also appearing at Suvilahti are electronic group Chromatics who released a new album called Closer to Grey after a lengthy break from recording, Koffee, a reggae star who brings together newest reggae sounds with Jamaican cultural and musical traditions as well as Mabel, one of the most prominent singers from a new generation of British R&B singers whose hit Don't Call Me Up was the most played foreign song on Finnish radio stations last year. Domestic additions to the lineup are one of the top Finnish rappers Gettomasa as well as Henrik! and Teksti-TV 666 making a Life Aid 2020 appearance together, which is sure to bring a huge amount of guitars on stage.

More lineup announcements are expected next week. Earlier, an American indie-folk sensation Bon Iver has been added to the lineup. In addition to its extensive musical lineup, Flow Festival is also known for its topical arts program, rich, varied and high-quality food offering and magical festival area. Three-day passes for Flow Festival are now available at Ticketmaster and Tiketti.

Confirmed partners for Flow Festival 2020 are the main partner Lapin Kulta Pure, partners Lanson and Oatly, as well as media partners Basso, Clear Channel, Helsingin Sanomat and Resident Advisor.
