

The world's best DJs presented at Flow Festival's Heineken Backyard

Flow Festival's impressive collection of DJ and club music keeps growing as the festival releases the performers of Backyard, a venue known for its feel-good atmosphere. This year, Backyard will be brought to life together with the festival's main partner, Heineken. Flow Festival's lush Backyard offers a diverse collection of captivating music, when Body & Soul: Danny Krivit, Joe Clausell & François K, Blck Mamba, livwutang, Nala Brown, Desiree, Bayetë, Esa b2b Suze Ijó, Norsicaa, and many others take the stage.

The atmospheric Heineken Backyard is an oasis for every lover of upbeat club music. This year, on Friday, August 9, the crowd gets to enjoy the set of true legends when the previously announced world-famous trio Danny Krivit, Joe Clausell & François K bring their unique Body & Soul concept on stage. In addition, Blck Mamba, an ambassador of feel-good African-influenced club music from Brussels, and South African Desiree, who open-mindedly combines African-style house with techno and deep house, will make people dance on Flow Friday. Among domestic DJs, Backyard's Friday will feature All Good Soundsystem's eclectic performance, Katerina's live set, and Siquiche, spreading the joys of disco, house and funk.

Raising the atmosphere at Heineken Backyard on Saturday, August 10, is one of the most promising DJ duos in the Parisian rhythm music circles, Bayetë, serving quality rhythms from all over the world. In addition, DJ-producer-multi-instrumentalist Dea, who describes his style as tropical and ecstatic, and Ilan, who curated the acclaimed Night City Life collection with 1980s Italian disco and synth pop, will take the Backyard stage on Saturday. Jeffrey Sfire plays the best pieces from classic genres like Italo-disco, hi-nrg, acid house, Chicago house and freestyle, and Norsicaa brings a high-quality and versatile selection focused on tropical rhythm music at Backyard on Saturday. Domestic representation includes DJs Ana Coudurier and Jaakko Rintala, as well as Jussi Kantonen and Juuso Tervo with their b2b sets.

On Sunday, August 11, performing their b2b set at Heineken Backyard are the charismatic and energetic DJ Esa and Rotterdam-based DJ Suze Ijó. In addition, Backyard's Sunday will feature New York DJ on the rise livwutang, who open-mindedly travels among house, dub and R&B, as well as Nala Brown, one of the most interesting DJ names in the Netherlands, whose music draws from house, techno and electro. Sophia Wekesa, known for the Club U-Haul and Mellow Yellow collectives, represents domestic talent on Backyard's Sunday. In their sets, they combine amapiano, Afrobeats, dancehall, hip hop, R&B and queer anthems.
