Flow's respected art program offers spectacular art installations taideohjelma tarjoaa upeita tila-installatioita ja valoteoksia ympäri festivaalialuetta. Located in Kattilahalli, Kalle Vainio's *The Land Where It Always Rains is a large-scale multimedia installation featuring ten reel-to-reel tape recorders, umbrellas, and projected video. The festival will also feature a diverse and extensive set of visuals, lighting design, and area lighting, implemented by Flow's long-time lighting design partner Sun Effects. This will especially be visible in the former industrial area of Hanasaari, where Front Yard will be located for the first time ever. Find out more on it: <https://www.flowfestival.com/en/art/>.

Known for its high-class, diverse selection of food, Flow has around 40 restaurants and 20 bars this year. There will not be any red meat or poultry served, and furthermore, this year all the fish served at Flow is from domestic sources. The festival also presents a wide variety of wines, craft beers, and non-alcoholic beverages. Flow's selection of restaurants consists of beloved favourites familiar from previous years as well as exciting newcomers. In the area you can find, for example, a sit-down concept Gina X Flow, Greenfinch, N4KU, The Alley, FLIP, and Thai Vegan Kitchen.
